Being fruitful And Productive Part 1 - YouTube

Answer: In the first chapter of Genesis, God tells Adam and Eve to "be fruitful and increase in number" (Genesis 1:28). This first command—which was also a blessing—that God gave people was a command to have children, to procreate. The same command/blessing, " be fruitful and multiply ," is repeated to Noah's family in Genesis 9:1 and 7 (ESV).

What is the importance of procreation according to the ...

Fruitful character comes from a great devotion, and the greatest devotion of all is the love of God. A life that grows in loving God becomes like God. John Owen writes, "[Love] begets a likeness between the mind loving and the object beloved. . . . A mind filled with the love of Christ as crucified . . . will be changed into his image and ...
