Poems for Funerals and Memorial Services. One does not leave a funeral in the same way that he has come.
He cannot help but have death on his mind. He cannot help but be aware that such is the end of all life. He may look at himself and have a new awareness that his body will not last forever.
These thoughts are ones that humans must face and find a way to deal with.

Humanist funeral ceremonies focus on the person who has died - their story, their history, their unique qualities, and the relationships they forged. Secular readings and poems often feature in humanist funeral ceremonies and, like popular pieces of music, there are some poems which are more frequently chosen than others - some are humorous and some are more emotional or sentimental .
