*Prayers for the Stolen* is based on real events that happen every day in contemporary Mexico: In the ongoing narco war, girls and young women are stolen and sold off, or kept by drug lords and their enforcers as slaves - it is particularly dangerous for young women to try to cross the border to the United States, where human traffickers lie in wait, or to live in those Mexican states that are largely controlled by the cartels, with the government being complicit.

Most people who are stolen and sold are subjected to sex trafficking or other forms of modern slavery: forced labor, debt... A woman can be sold to different owners many times, and even dozens of times a day as a prostitute, while a plastic bag of drugs can be sold once. Prayers for the Stolen is a novel about Ladydi García Mart i nez. She is part of a community, like so many in rural Mexico, that has been decimated by drug traffickers, government agricultural policies and illegal immigration.
