The Orphan Train Movement was a supervised welfare program that transported orphaned and homeless children from crowded Eastern cities of the United States to foster homes located largely in rural areas of the Midwest. The orphan trains operated between 1854 and 1929, relocating about 200,000 orphaned, abandoned, abused, or homeless children. Three charitable institutions, Children's Village, the Children's Aid Society and later, the New York Foundling Hospital, endeavored to help these children

This is an absolutely beautiful collectors train pack. I have always been a fan of the Railway Children since I was a kid and had one of the original Hornby sets. Was excited to hear about this set when it was hinted at a few months ago, but did not think that I would get one. When launched I thought the price was great and placed an order.
